'In May last, the clerk sent by the Superintendent Registrar of Leeds, Mr Lampen, had wilfully destroyed the packet of quarterly returns, instead of posting them to the GRO, consisting of 2086 entries in all. The Registrar General instructed the Superintendent Registrar to obtain duplicate copies, as quickly as possible, at a total cost of £15 1s 4d'

'The certified Copies of Marriages solemnized since April last by about one thousand Authorized Persons are now being received in this office, and they naturally display an infinite variety of blunders and contraventions of the Rules and Regulations of a more or less serious character' www.ukbmd.org.ukLocal BMD - Websites with indexes based on original Register Office Records.

FAQ

On this page you will find links to all the county websites that offer online transcribed indexes to the original records held by the local register offices. Searching these records should be your first choice. If the county that you are interested in does not have their local BMD records on-line yet or the data has not been transcribed yet, then try entering your names of interest in the search box at the bottom of this page.

For more information about the Local BMD websites visit the Local BMD Project page.

Several of these websites offer online ordering of copy certificates and will steer you through to the online ordering process after you complete your searches. For other areas, you might find that the local register office has its own online ordering system, separate to these search websites. These can be found listed on the Certificates page.

The first set of link are to the websites that are part of the Local BMD Project , followed by the others, which offer a similar search of their register office BMD data, but use different software to achieve this.

'The monotony of constant writing persevered in during 9 or 10 hours every day on Task Work tends to stupefy and to destroy the senses of those employed on such never ceasing work'

RG29/2 Treasury Letter Book 1864-1885

SOMERSET HOUSE clerk once declared that the tedium of his labour on the registry of births and deaths is often relieved by coming across a humorous juxtaposition of names.

"THEN THE FACE OF THE CLERK WILL BE COVERED WITH A SMILE."
